■ On the official last day for Island School students, June 2, they performed their annual spring show for their families called "We're Making Music! A Celebration of Performance." Under the tutelage of music teacher Marti Koch kindergarten and first graders performed "Tambourine Kid" and "A Beat in My Feet." Second and third graders performed "Ode to Composers," "I Hear Music Everywhere" and "Movin' to the Beat," performed with the fourth and fifth graders. The eldest two classes also performed "I Wish You Music," "Play That Music (All Day Long)!" "A Round For All to Sing!" and "Music, Music." All students then performed "Music Is Always There," "The Island School Song" by Diana Donlon and the fifth graders played the djembe drums.

The end of the year slideshow was also shown at the performance. Here are just a few scenes from the show.
