

THE BOCA BEACON AROUND THE WORLD

■ Publisher/owner of the Boca Beacon/Veteran Dusty Hopkins (U.S. Air Force) and wife/guardian Cheryl, were a part of the Southwest Florida Honor Flight that flew to Washington, D.C. on May 2. Ninety veterans made the trip (one passed away in April and another was hospitalized just days before the flight) from Southwest Regional Airport to Washington, D.C. They flew safely back the same day after spending time and being honored at each military memorial. Upon their return they received the welcome home they deserved with hundreds of family members and well wishers greeting them with red, white and blue regalia.

A parade followed, a bagpiper group played, the color guard was there as well as a local Scout troops. It was a small thank you for their dedication and sacrifice.
