

Around the town in the summertime ...

■ In the summertime we finally get to catch our breath, evaluate the past season and plan for the upcoming one. It might be super hot, but it can be so beautiful, as you can see from the photos at the top left (railroad trestle, the bridge after a rain and the new plantings at the north end). This fancy turtle fella came out of hiding to cross a deserted road, then proceeded to have a staredown with us. You can find special treats, like Savannah's Smiles chocolate chip cookies, and the maintenance workers at The Inn are getting things put back together, even better than before. The flowers are blooming, the liquor store at The Temp is movin' and shakin', Rebecca Cleveland is making her new place feel like home, workers are busy putting new roof tiles on the Depot Building, and the bike shop employees are getting their rentals in tiptop shape. And then, of course, you have the ever-lovely Lilly store ... no words needed.
