

THE BOCA BEACON AROUND THE WORLD

BY EFFIE JOINER

■ We just took an epic trip to El Salvador and we hammed it up while there!!

We traveled to a remote surfing town in El Salvador. Went on daily adventures that included delicious foods, morning swells, waterfalls and volcanoes. We hiked the highest volcano and a peak called Santa Ana where we hammed up with the Boca Beacon.

Along for the ride, myself, Nick Morris, Mila Wyman, Summer Gibson and Wyatt Steyer.

NOTE: The Santa Ana Volcano, also known as Iamatepec is the highest volcano in El Salvador (7,821 ft)
